INVESTIGATIVE SUMMARY

CASE NUMBER F-010658

The summary of this incident is based upon reports, memorandum, taped interviews, logs, and photographs taken of physical evidence at the scene. This summary is preliminary and contains statements from all of the deputies involved in the incident and witnesses to the incident.

On August 6, 1996, at 1230 hours, Tuesday, Lieutenant Willa Glover notified Sergeant Ernie Gjendem and Sergeant Chester Mitchell of the Internal Affairs Bureau that a significant use of force had occurred at Men's Central Jail. Investigators were also advised the use of force had occurred earlier in the day, at approximately 0905 hours.

Investigators responded to Men's Central Jail and met with Lieutenant John Dewyer, the day shift watch commander. Lt. Dewyer briefed the investigators and later referred the investigators to Sergeant Robert Nimtz, the day shift 9000 floor sergeant. Lt. Dewyer reported that at 0905 hours, an inmate assigned to dormitory 9500 yelled at a deputy, then took a combative stance while he faced the deputy, and the deputy responded by punching at the inmate. The deputy and three assisting deputies fell to the floor inside the dormitory with the inmate. The deputies struggled with the inmate and then removed the inmate from the dormitory. When the inmate grabbed hold of the door, the deputies punched the inmate so he would release his grasp. As the deputies gained control, they handcuffed the inmate and had him transported to the clinic. About 3 hours later, Lt. Dewyer was notified this inmate sustained a broken rib and a broken leg and he notified Lt. Glover of Internal Affairs Bureau. Investigators were advised inmate Clint Williams, booking number 4816-126, was currently hospitalized at Los Angeles County Medical Center in the Jail Ward.

The deputy and inmate interviews were conducted on August 6, 1996, in the F.A.S. office adjacent to the sergeant's office on 9000 at Men's Central Jail.

Deputy Diana Villao #[redacted] assigned as the 9000 control booth deputy, was interviewed by Sergeants Ernie Gjendem and Chester Mitchell. She read her administrative rights as a sworn witness and signed and dated the form. She said that this morning, after morning chow but before the floor did its transmittals, she was seated at the controls in the control booth. She was seated about 10 feet from the doorway into 9500. She first heard scuffling outside the control booth and looked towards the direction of the noise which was the door to 9500. She saw deputies bring an inmate out of the dormitory and the inmate grabbed the edge of the door on his way out. She saw several deputies pull the inmate into the hallway and start to handcuff him. She was unable to give an exact number of deputies who took control of the inmate on the floor, but estimated the number as about 4. She recalled inmates were arriving on 9000 during the altercation and she did not remember to close the door because she does not usually work the control booth. She also failed to notify main control and tell them she had a fight on her floor. She said she also failed to use her radio and announce there was a fight in progress on her floor involving deputies and an inmate. She said she believed the floor senior, Senior Deputy Bonar, was in the 9000 control booth. She could not recall whether she opened the control booth door before the incident occurred or whether she opened the door for the deputies to exit the booth when the incident started. She did not observe the inmate leave the floor. Villao provided a written account of the incident, which is included as part of Exhibit C.

Deputy Jeffrey Barnes #[redacted] was interviewed by Sergeants Ernie Gjendem and Chester

Mitchell. He read his administrative rights as a sworn witness and he signed and dated the form. Barnes said that earlier this morning he was inside the 9500 control booth when he saw inmate Williams wearing a t-shirt around his head as a bandana. He called inmate Williams over to the control booth. He told Williams to remove the t-shirt from around his head and Williams complied after mumbling a few words. He directed the inmate to return to his bunk and he complied. Barnes exited the 9500 booth and proceeded to the 9500 door which is just across from the 9000 control booth. When Barnes arrived at the 9500 dormitory door across from the control booth, Barnes told Williams to exit the dormitory and stop in the hallway. Barnes said he was alone with the Williams, and he searched Williams' property. Barnes removed Williams' silver colored tank top and told him that it would be added to his personal property. Barnes explained to Williams that wearing the silver tank top is not proper attire to be worn inside the jail. Barnes told Williams to return to his bunk and gather up his personal property and jail property and return to the bench adjacent the door to 9500, see photos in Exhibit D. He saw Williams walk to his bunk, gather his belongings and return to the bench. Barnes noted Williams' name and booking number and prepared to transfer him to the jail side. Barnes then returned to his work assignment on the roof.

> IAB NOTE: Lieutenant David Waters, a watch commander at Men's Central Jail, advised the assigned investigator that any t-shirt other than a standard white issue is contraband.

Senior Deputy Daniel Bonar #[redacted] was interviewed by Sergeants Ernie Gjendem and Chester Mitchell. He said he was assigned as the day shift 9000 floor senior. He read his administrative rights as a sworn witness and he signed and dated the form. He said at about 0900 hours he was seated at his desk inside the control booth when he saw deputies, one which was Austin, engaged in a struggle. Although he did not see an inmate, he believed it was a fight involving an inmate. He was also heard what he thought was a commotion from inside the control booth. He explained that his desk in the 9000 control booth is about 48 inches above the floor. He recalled talking with Lines in the control booth just before the struggle occurred. Bonar walked out of the booth and saw at least two deputies removing an inmate from the dormitory into the hallway. He saw the inmate and deputies were struggling in the doorway area across from the 9000 control booth. He was unable to describe the struggle between the deputies and the inmate, but thought the deputies were gaining control and did not believe his involvement was necessary. He saw inmates in 9500 standing in the open area between the benches and the tables and believed that order on the 9000 floor was his primary concern. While he entered the dormitory, he heard the inmate groan. He determined disorder may be next inside the dormitory, so he jumped upon a bench and ordered everyone to their bunks. He saw the inmates return to their bunks. He saw [redacted] and [redacted] and a third deputy that he thought was Lines enter the dorm and assist him in keeping the peace inside 9500 dormitory. He was satisfied with the demeanor of the inmates in 9500 and exited the dorm. As he exited, he smelled the odor of oleoresin spray in the hallway. He saw deputies standing in front of the control booth and told [redacted] to open the pipe chase door across from the F.A.S. office. He said he never saw a deputy punch or kick inmate Williams, nor did he see Williams kick or punch at the deputies. Bonar said he was surprised when he learned the extent of Williams' injuries. Bonar said he saw a piece of Williams' sock was missing directly over the right ankle's injury.

> IAB NOTE: Sergeant Gjendem entered the dormitory and began a search for the piece of sock and evidence of the struggle. Because the incident happened almost 5 hours prior and the dormitory had been cleaned, there was no evidence of a struggle. The table, stools, and benches all had acute edges on the underside.

Deputy [redacted] was interviewed by Sergeants Ernie Gjendem and Chester Mitchell at 1421 hours. He was assigned as prowl 3 on 9000. He read his administrative rights as a sworn subject and he signed and dated the form. He said at about 0905 hours he was in the rear of the 9000 control booth when he exited the booth, walked by the 9500 dormitory door, and saw an inmate seated on the bench directly inside the dorm. He recalled the inmate, who he later identified as Williams, demanded an Inmate Complaint Form and he also saw two Hispanic inmates seated on the bench next to Williams. [redacted] indicated he was unaware of Barnes' earlier search of inmate Williams. [redacted] entered the dormitory and asked Williams why he wanted the form and Williams replied to [redacted] "You're a bitch." [redacted] then ordered Williams out of the dormitory and into the hallway. He saw Williams jump up quick and take a combative stance with his feet apart and balanced, and then tell [redacted] "Why don't you make me, you punk ass bitch." [redacted] reached for Williams' shirt to pull him into the hallway and that was when Williams smacked [redacted] arm away and took a couple of swings at him. [redacted] then demonstrated that he had to move to his left and right to avoid being struck by Williams' punches. [redacted] reported Williams was off balance so he advanced on Williams and punched him twice in the face, but his [redacted] punches were glancing blows. Williams backed up towards the dining tables directly inside the door. He saw McGrew enter the dormitory and tackle Williams on Williams' left side just below the heart. He saw McGrew land on the dining table and Williams land on the table's attached chairs. He saw McGrew had a hold of Williams' chest and Williams was kicking. He, along with a couple of additional deputies who he thought was [redacted] and Weber, grabbed hold of Williams and started to pull him into the hallway. He heard Williams yell, and saw him kick, scratch, and bite at the deputies who were removing him from the dormitory. He saw Williams grab the door and saw [redacted] spray Williams with his Oleoresin Capsicum spray. Williams then let loose of the door and [redacted] and the other deputies managed to pull Williams into the hallway. He saw Williams thrashing and kicking violently at the deputies and they were able to turn Williams onto his stomach. He said Williams kept his arms underneath his chest. He repeatedly told Williams to put his arms behind his back as he pulled on the arm. [redacted] said he punched Williams in the right rib cage just below the arm pit area. After the third punch, [redacted] said he was able to grab the right arm and employ a bar arm control hold behind the back. He saw a deputy on Williams' left side, who he later learned was Weber, and he saw Weber strike Williams at least once and then Weber managed to bring the left arm behind Williams' back and he handcuffed Williams. He did not recall [redacted] role in the incident other than using the spray. He did not see [redacted] hit Williams. He recalled Williams stopped fighting after he was handcuffed and saw Senior Deputy Bonar standing nearby. He notified the floor sergeant and the watch commander on the use of force.

[redacted] said he was told Williams may have a broken arm, broken leg, and broken left ribs. He said Williams' arm may have broke when he struck the table and the chairs. [redacted] said he punched Williams on the right side, and learned later Weber punched Williams' left side while removing the left arm. [redacted] said he believes that Williams may have broke his left leg while being tackled or when he was violently flailing about with his legs because he recalled the right shin being bloodied when they were pulling Williams from the dormitory. He thought Williams' leg may have struck either the steel table, the steel stools, or the steel benches during the struggle.

[redacted] said that he has documented acts where an inmate has called him a bitch. He referred to the manner in which Williams addressed him, as gross insubordination. He said it was his intent when he asked Williams to step out of the dormitory into the hallway to send him to a discipline module.

Deputy Sean M. McGrew #[redacted] was interviewed by Sergeants Ernie Gjendem and Chester Mitchell at 1447 hours. He said he was assigned as prowl 2 on 9000. He read his administrative rights as a sworn subject and he signed and dated the form. He said at the time of the incident he was at the desk located between the 9000 control booth and the door to 9500 dormitory. He saw [redacted] inside the 9500 dormitory speaking with inmate Williams, and recognized this inmate as the same inmate that Barnes had counselled earlier. He recalled Barnes telephoned the 9000 control booth and told the deputies that Williams had contraband. The inmate was pulled out in the 9000 hallway, searched, given back the property that he was entitled to keep, and told to re-enter the dormitory. Williams was not satisfied because he wanted to wear the silver shirt and not have it placed in his property. He heard Barnes tell Williams the silver shirt was contraband and for him to sit inside the dormitory. A short while later, he saw [redacted] standing outside the door and speaking with Williams, who was seated on the bench inside the dormitory. He walked behind [redacted] as [redacted] spoke with Williams. He heard Williams state, "Give me a complaint form, you bitch." He heard [redacted] ask Williams, "What did you say?" He heard [redacted] tell Williams to exit 9500 dormitory and then heard Williams say, "No, you're going to have to come inside and get me." Next he saw [redacted] step to the door, and Williams jump up. He described Williams as in a boxer's stance, arms upraised with fists. He heard [redacted] tell Williams to exit the dormitory and that was when he saw Williams start punching at [redacted] He saw [redacted] punch Williams. McGrew said he ran towards Williams and put his shoulder into the Williams' left side and tackled him using a football-type tackle. He maintained a grasp on Williams' upper torso with his arms and hands under Williams' arms and his head next to Williams' neck as they landed on the dining table. He recalled Williams landed on his right side and then they fell to the floor under the table and chairs where Williams kept kicking and punching. He saw [redacted] and [redacted] grab Williams who was still kicking and they pulled him out of the dorm. He saw Williams grab the door's edge, [redacted] spray Williams in the face, and then saw Williams let loose of the door's edge. He saw Williams after he landed on the floor, roll over and pull his arms under the chest. He maintained a grasp of Williams, but was now on Williams' back. He recalled Weber was pulling on one of Williams' arms and [redacted] was prying on the other arm. He said when Weber and [redacted] pulled the arms out from under Williams' chest, he got off Williams' back so Williams could be handcuffed. He did not punch Williams at any time, nor did he see any deputy punch Williams. During the fight he never heard a crack, but thought the broken rib(s) may have occurred when Williams hit the table. He thought Williams' legs may have struck the underside of the benches when he was kicking about.

McGrew said that Williams believed he was a state inmate and no longer a county inmate; and, therefore he could wear the silver shirt.

McGrew believed that an inmate who called a deputy a bitch is in violation of jail rules. He planned to file discipline proceedings against Williams because Williams called a deputy a bitch.

Deputy [redacted] was interviewed by Sergeants Ernie Gjendem and Chester Mitchell at 1535 hours. Lt. Glover monitored [redacted] interview. [redacted] was assigned as new side movement 3. He read his administrative rights as a sworn subject and he signed and dated the form. [redacted] entered the 9000 floor and as he neared the control booth, he saw a struggle through a window inside dormitory 9500. He saw [redacted] and McGrew fighting with an inmate inside the dormitory on the dining table. He entered the dorm and saw the struggle was moving towards the door across from the 9000 control booth. He stopped a few feet inside the doorway and assisted [redacted] and McGrew, in what he described as a wrestling match-type of struggle. He saw Williams kicking his legs. Neither [redacted] McGrew, or Williams were on the floor during the fight. He saw several inmates raise up from their beds and watch the fight, so he yelled at the inmates to remain on their bunks. [redacted] grabbed Williams' left arm and assisted the two deputies by pulling Williams from the dormitory. However, when Williams was at the door, he grabbed the door jamb and held on. He saw McGrew had a grasp on Williams' upper torso, but did not recall what [redacted] was doing. [redacted] sprayed Williams with his Oleoresin Capsicum Spray in the eyes twice causing Williams to release his grip of the door and then allow the deputies to pull him out into the hallway. [redacted] placed himself on Williams' right side and saw Williams' hands were under his body. [redacted] told Williams several times to remove his hands and place them behind his back. [redacted] punched Williams a few times in the right side rib area allowing him to pull Williams' right arm out from under Williams' torso and then he and [redacted] were able to force the right arm behind his back. [redacted] recalled Weber was on Williams' left side pulling on Williams' left arm. He never saw Weber punch Williams. He saw [redacted] handcuff Williams. He did not observe anyone kick or strike Williams with any impact weapon. [redacted] never saw Bonar inside 9500 dormitory when the struggle was occurring.

IAB NOTE: [redacted] has been trained in the use of O.C. Spray.

Deputy Kenneth A. Weber #[redacted] was interviewed by Sergeants Ernie Gjendem and Chester Mitchell at 1555 hours. Lt. Glover monitored Weber's interview. Weber was assigned as 9000 patrol 3. He read his administrative rights as a sworn subject and he signed and dated the form. Weber reported that at about 0905 hours he was directly outside the F.A.S. office door when he heard a commotion inside dormitory 9500. He walked to the dormitory's door and saw McGrew and [redacted] struggling with Williams just inside the 9500 doorway. Weber saw Williams was swinging his arms and hands, and his feet and legs were kicking and thrashing wildly. He saw Williams kick the underside of the bench very hard. He recalled the kick was so hard that his attention was drawn to the bench. He ran to Williams and grabbed his shirt and pulled Williams towards the hallway in an attempt to remove him from the dormitory. When Williams was at the doorway with his hands on the door, Weber saw Williams continue to kick wildly. Weber saw [redacted] O.C. spray Williams' eyes causing Williams to let loose of the door. Weber hit the door and then got down on the floor on Williams' left side and saw Williams place both hands under his chest. Weber demanded Williams remove his hands, and when Williams did not comply, Weber punched Williams once in the left ribs a few inches above the waist with his right fist. Again, Weber demanded Williams remove his hands, and when he failed to comply, Weber struck Williams 3 or 4 more times in the left rib area. Weber managed to grab Williams' left wrist and twisted the left arm behind the back where [redacted] handcuffed Williams. Weber said he did not observe [redacted] McGrew, or [redacted] punch Williams. Weber said his attention was focused on Williams and did not know exactly what each deputy did. He never saw or heard Senior Deputy Bonar inside the dormitory. Weber made a drawing to explain Williams' positioning at the doorway, Exhibit I.

Deputy Thomas B. Lines #[redacted] was interviewed by Sergeants Ernie Gjendem and Chester Mitchell at 1625 hours. Lt. Glover monitored Lines' interview. Lines was assigned as new side movement 2. He read his administrative rights as a sworn witness and he signed and dated the form. Lines said at about 0905 hours he was seated inside the 9000 control booth. He heard someone, but did not know who, report there was a fight and immediately exited the booth. He thought there was someone who exited the booth in front of him, but again did not know who that person was. He saw 4 deputies, unknown which deputies, struggle and pull on inmate Williams as they exited dormitory 9500. He recalled one deputy had a hold of Williams around the waist. He saw the deputies attempt to handcuff Williams who was struggling by kicking and flailing about. He believed there was sufficient deputy personnel so he did not assist. He said the deputies were pushing Williams on his stomach. He saw Senior Deputy Bonar inside 9500 dormitory telling the inmates to remain on their bunks, so he entered to assist Bonar.

Lines later escorted Williams to the clinic. He heard Williams complain of pain while en route to the clinic. He heard Williams tell the medical staff he was experiencing pain in the leg and either the shoulder or rib areas. He recalled a medical staff member asked Williams how he sustained the injuries and said that Williams said nothing. Lines was with Williams when x-rays were taken and learned that Williams sustained a broken right leg above the ankle and a broken left rib.

Investigators then began a systematic search for inmates who may have witnessed the use of force event. Since there had been several inmate [redacted] across from 9500 dormitory in the supply room, they were summoned to the F.A.S. office to be interviewed. The inmates are: [redacted] MB/A, booking number [redacted] MB/A, booking number [redacted] MB/A, booking number [redacted] MB/A, booking number [redacted] MB/A, booking number [redacted] MH/A, booking number [redacted] MB/A, booking number [redacted] MB/A booking number [redacted] The trusties reported that at 0900 hours they were either inside the laundry room across from 9500 or were out of the area. Those inmates in the laundry room reported they did not witness or hear a commotion between inmates or deputies. However, Inmate [redacted] heard what he thought was possibly a fight, but never checked.

> IAB NOTE: Investigators were provided the names of two inmates by Lieutenant Dewyer, the day shift watch commander, that were seated on the bench next to Williams at the time of the incident.

Inmate [redacted] MH/A, booking number [redacted] was interviewed by Sergeants Ernie Gjendem and Chester Mitchell. Lieutenant Glover monitored the interview. [redacted] said that at about 0900 hours, on August 6, 1996, he was seated on the front bench near the door to dormitory [redacted] While he was seated on the bench, a male Black inmate entered the dormitory screaming, yelling, and being rude and disrespectful. He recalled the Black inmate asked for a complaint form, and the deputy told the Black inmate to hold on a minute. He heard the Black inmate tell the deputy, "That's why you're acting like a bitch." At this time, he heard the deputy ask the Black inmate to step outside the door. He heard the Black inmate tell the deputy, "Well come in and get me." He then heard the deputy ask the Black inmate again, to exit the dormitory and the inmate responded, "Come in and get me." He saw the deputy step inside the dormitory and the Black inmate raised his arms and fists in a boxer's stance. [redacted] stood up because he believed the inmate was about to engage in a fight with the deputy. He then saw the deputy reach out and grab the inmate. He ran so as not to be involved. He heard the deputy tell the inmate several times to get down. He then saw a second deputy grab the inmate and the two landed on the table. During the struggle the inmate and deputy went to the floor adjacent the table's stools. He then saw several deputies enter the dormitory and grab the inmate and pull him from the dormitory, while a couple of deputies told everyone to remain on their bunks.

He thought the inmate called the deputy a bitch more than once but he was not sure. He said he never saw a deputy punch or kick the inmate, nor did he see a deputy strike the inmate with any impact weapon.

[redacted] said there was a second inmate seated on the bench next to him, but he did not know this inmate's name.

Inmate [redacted] MH/A, booking number [redacted] was interviewed by Sergeants Ernie Gjendem and Chester Mitchell. Lieutenant Glover monitored the interview. [redacted] said at about 0900 hours, on August 6, 1996, he was seated on a bench inside dormitory [redacted] He saw a deputy tell a male Black inmate to sit on a bench. He heard the inmate ask for an inmate complaint form and then he heard the inmate call the deputy a bitch several times. He heard the deputy tell the inmate to come and get the complaint form as the deputy stood in the doorway. He then heard the inmate tell the deputy to bring the form to him. He heard the deputy tell the inmate to exit the dormitory and then heard the inmate tell the deputy to come in and get him. He saw the deputy enter the dormitory. He saw the inmate stand up and take a boxer's stance with his hands and fists raised. He saw the deputy grab the inmate's shirt sleeve and then he saw the inmate push the deputy's arm free from the shirt sleeve. He saw the deputy punch the inmate either in the face or in the chest. He then saw several deputies enter the dormitory and take the inmate to the table and then to the floor. He was emphatic that the inmate struck the table, the stool, and the support that holds the stool all very hard. He saw 3 or 4 deputies grab the inmate and pull him from the dormitory while 1 or 2 deputies yelled for everyone to remain on their bunks. He saw the inmate's arms swinging wildly at the 3 or 4 deputies, and then saw the inmate grab the door. He said that after the Black inmate was down, he never saw a deputy punch or kick the inmate. He described the deputies actions as pulling and trying to control the inmate's resisting actions. He believed the inmate was out of line by challenging the deputy both verbally and physically.

Investigators then entered dormitory 9500 and determined who was in the dormitory at 0905 hours earlier in the day. These inmates were separated from the general population and each was interviewed separately. The inmates were [redacted] MB/A, booking number [redacted] MB/A, booking number [redacted] M/A, booking number [redacted] M/A, booking number [redacted] M/A, booking number [redacted] MH/A, booking number [redacted] and [redacted] M/A, booking number [redacted]

Inmate [redacted] said at about 0900 hours, on August 6, 1996, he was lying on his bunk inside dormitory [redacted] when he heard a commotion. He looked in the commotion's direction and saw an inmate being pulled from the dormitory by deputies. He did not observe any punches or kicks by the unknown number of deputies.

Inmate [redacted] said at about 0900 hours, on August 6, 1996, he was inside dormitory [redacted] lying on his bunk. He heard an inmate being smart with a deputy and then heard an argument. He looked in the direction of the argument and then saw 4 deputies pull a Black inmate from the dormitory. He reported his bunk is about 8 feet from where the arguing inmate was seated. He thought 2 deputies had the inmate's feet and 1 deputy had the inmate's head as they pulled the inmate from the dorm. He never saw the inmate grab the door. He also never saw the deputies punch the inmate, but he thought he heard punches after the inmate and deputies exited the dorm.

Inmate [redacted] said at about 0900 hours, on August 6, 1996, he was inside dormitory [redacted] and slept through the incident involving the deputies and inmate.

Inmate [redacted] said he was in court at 0900 hours, on August 6, 1996, and did not see the altercation between the deputies and the inmate.

Inmate [redacted] said he arrived in dormitory [redacted] after 0900 hours and did not see the struggle between the deputies and the inmate.

Inmate [redacted] said he was inside dormitory [redacted] at 0900 hours, but was unaware of a struggle between deputies and an inmate until after the struggle occurred and another inmate told him.

Inmate [redacted] said at about 0900 hours he was in the Identification Room at I.R.C.

All inmate interviews were audiotaped.

The injured inmate was identified as Clint Williams MB/A, booking number #4816-126. He was interviewed at Los Angeles County Medical Center Jail Ward on August 6, 1996, at 2017 hours, by Sergeants Ernie Gjendem and Chester Mitchell. The interview was tape recorded. Williams said that on August 6, 1996, at about 0900 hours, he was walking inside dormitory 9500 when the deputy in the booth called him to the booth and told him to give him the sling shot (a type of tank top shirt) he was wearing. Williams told the deputy he would take off the shirt only if the deputy would place the shirt on his property. He recalled the deputy told him several times to remove the shirt and that was when he told the deputy he would have to come in and take it from him. He said several deputies entered the dormitory and caused him to exit the dormitory and turn over his shirt and the deputies took his store items. He told the deputy he had a receipt for the property. He said the deputy gave him some of the property back and told him to return inside the dormitory. Williams said one of the deputies pushed him toward the door and he went inside the dorm. He recalled a deputy told him to return to the hallway and he told the deputy he was not going to exit the dorm. He recalled several deputies entered the dormitory and threw him on the wall where the deputies stomped him.

Williams said he asked a deputy for an inmate complaint form but did not like the deputy's answer. He denied he called the deputy a bitch, but admitted he told the deputy, "Ya'all are acting like little bitches." He also denied he called a deputy a punk ass bitch. He said he told the deputy, "I ain't coming out, you got to come in and get me." He said he stood up and started running back inside the dormitory when a deputy swung at him. He said 8 to 10 deputies then came in and grabbed and stomped him. He denied standing up and forming his hands and arms in a boxer's stance. He did not recall landing on the table and stools. He recalled several deputies hauling him outside the dormitory. He denied he grabbed the door, but said he tried to keep the deputies from ramming his head into the door. He said he folded himself into a knot on his stomach. He said 2 or 3 deputies punched him in the face and head and kicked him in the ribs three times. He did not see anyone kick him in the ribs, but only felt the impact of a foot. He said his right leg was injured when he was stomped and beat by the deputies.

Williams reported that he has been under psychiatric care for the past two (2) years with Doctor Siegel. He said during that period he received medication to control his behavior.

Williams has a very extensive adult criminal history [redacted] He said he has been to prison twice and is now fighting a third offense.

Doctor William Conrad, MD, #[redacted] was interviewed on August 6, 1996, at 2032 hours, by Sergeant Gjendem. Lieutenant Willa Glover was present during the interview. Dr. Conrad witnessed Williams sign the medical records release authorization to Sergeant Gjendem. The interview was tape recorded. Dr. Conrad said he examined and treated Inmate Williams. He noted that Williams had the following injuries: an open fibular fracture to the right lower leg (the smaller non-weight bearing bone); a laceration to the right elbow; and a fracture to the 11th rib on the left side. The doctor said there were no other obvious abrasions or trauma to Williams' body. He said Williams told him the injuries were sustained when he was beaten up.

Doctor Conrad said the laceration was clean and could have been caused by striking an object. The laceration was closed with two sutures. He said it would be most unlikely for this type of leg injury to be caused by a punch or a kick. He indicated that the leg injury could have been caused by striking a metal bench, provided there was sufficient force applied. He said the fractured rib on the left side could have been caused by a punch to the rib area.
